WHO SHOT AT SHERIFF

DES MOINES, IOWA, July 30.—Sheriffs Hunott, of Knox county, Mo., and Davis, of Apanoose county, Iowa, with a posse of well-armed citizens, have gone to Brazil, a small mining town five miles from Centerville, where it is reported Clarke, the negro wanted at Kahoka, Mo., for attacking Gertrude Hess, is hiding. Sheriff Hunolt encountered a negro who he positively asserts was Clarke, near Centerville, last night and commanded him to hait. He received a shot in reply and engaged in an ineffectual pistol duel with the man.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch:

Sir,—In the Sunday (July 19th) edition of your paper appeared an article to the effect that I had refused to obey the order of the Mayor to piay for the millitary camped at Reservoir Park for thely dress-parade on Saturday, July 18th. On Monday following I called upon His Honor and was informed by him that he had not issued such an order.

His Honor stated that a military officer had called upon him, asking for the services of the band, for said dressparade, and he had informed him that he had not the slightest objection if it could be arranged satisfactorily between all parties concerned. On hearing of my bonded contract with the city His Honor also stated that he had no right to interfere with my coatract.

I was not consulted in the matter and reported with the band on that evening for the usual concert, and entirely unprepared for parade work.

The band had played the first number of the pragramme, and had started the second number, when we were interrupted by the drums and trumpets of the millitary. I stopped the band and repaired to the parade ground, but before I could utter a protest the officer in command asked me to report with the band for the said parade, which, of course, I could not do, as it would cause me to violate my contract with the embers of the band, who ere engaged by me for concert work only, it being expressly stipulated that any extra money to the members of the band.

I am impelled to reply to the article in question at this late date because of rumors coming to me that my course in the matter had by some been unfavorably criticised.

Please place these facts before the records and oblice.
